Vice Chair, Healthcare Law

Isabelle Bibet-Kalinyak is an experienced and creative healthcare attorney and proven deal maker representing “brick-and-mortar” and virtual multi-state healthcare clients in complex business transactions including private equity deals, hospitals and ambulatory surgery centers acquisitions and joint ventures, MSO structuring, strategic partnerships and compliance.

As Vice Chair of the Brach Eichler’s Healthcare Practice Group, she counsels physicians, healthcare providers, hospitals, associations, Boards and management teams on the legal and strategic implications associated with various forms of corporate entities, healthcare integration models, compliance, payers, credentialing and emerging trends, laws, and regulations. The depth of Isabelle’s experience enables her to assist clients in evaluating both the legal and business ramifications of transactions, contracts, agreements, negotiations, and compliance issues.

Her legal, business and operational acumen is keenly aligned with her role as legal counsel to six New Jersey medical societies:

- NJ Association of Ambulatory Surgery Centers (NJAASC)
- NJ Academy of Ophthalmology (NJOA)
- NJ American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) Section
- NJ Obstetrical & Gynecological Society (NJOGS)
- NJ Orthopaedic Society (NJOS)
- NJ Society of Pathologists (NJSP)

As one of the few French business attorneys in the U.S. and a first-generation immigrant herself, Isabelle’s healthcare practice has over time organically expanded to trans-national business transactions. Isabelle brings vast knowledge and experience advising U.S. clients with operations in French-
